HEAR IT TIZZ

TOO BAD or is it--that CELEBRITIES cannot go out for an evening, watch a show or just wander around. The other night BING CROSBY, his shadow and producer, BILL MORROW, dropped into the FAIRMONT with a couple of pretty looking Young Ladies. BING got away with a dance on the floor without causing a riot, then sat down to eat his dinner during the show. When Wonderful old entertainer TED LEWIS performed, BING was seen laughing and enjoying himself, but came the time when LEWIS mentioned BING's name, The Groaner jumped up and ran out of the place. BILL's entreaties could not get him back either. Oh well, what's a steak dinner uneaten.....

.....WORD IS that the CARMEL POST OFFICE will move the weekend of Oct. 13-14. There will be a minimum of Box number changes and the new location will have at least 700 more boxes than are now available.....

MAYBE the PERMANENT POSTMASTER will be named then.

.....WONDER if there will be some LOAFING husbands in town this weekend for the DEL MONTE CHAMPIONSHIP FOR WOMEN which is scheduled for today and tomorrow at the Del Monte Course. This week there were plenty of wives around for the Calif. State play. Only four local gals entered as this is written, including Mrs. J. E. HURFF and Mrs. HARRY HUNT and Mrs. KENT DOUGLAS of Pebble Beach; Mrs. FRANK PUTNAM of Carmel.....

.....OFF for the Northern part of the state, next weekend, are Mr. & Mrs. FRED WARREN of Carmel who will take a three week vacation at their Hide-a-way.....

.....3 Young ladies of interest hereabouts made their arrival last week. They are: DEBORAH CATHERINE who claimed Mr. & Mrs. William D. Watt of 3rd & Junipero, MARLA JEAN who is now out in Carmel Valley with the James Hadleys, and JEANETTE LUCILLE who found Arthur and Didi Harber waiting, as were grandparents Mr. & Mrs. Floyd E. Harber and Mrs. Thomas A. McGlynn Jr.....

.....SIGNS of the TIMES--The TV antennae going up on Ocean near Highway One. Pacific Grove and East Monterey look like Southern Calif. with all the TV tell tales but there are not so many on this side of the Hill. If TV is slow in coming to Carmel thru the AIR it's not slow in coming in person. The latest TV personage here looking over the scenic and talent set up is ALBERT B. BUFFINGTON of Hollywood--staying with friends but with an eye out for business. His latest Television success show is "THE QUIZZ OF TWO CITIES" which he claims is better than the oral show of that name.....

.....BIG EVENT next weekend is the FIRST ANNIVERSARY party of the Carmel Youth Center. Will be Oct. 6--and in the afternoon they are holding a Fashion Show and Tea (except it will be coffee) and all the models will be members. Carmel shops supplying clothes include Gail Coupe, Lanz, Putnam & Raggett, Balzers, Louise Kramer, Gladys McCloud, the Stocking Shop, Band Box, and by next week probably others. Rod Coupe will commentate. The show is free as is the DANCE that night from 8 till 12. Music is furnished without charge by PAT COLEMAN with 14 pieces. They are allowed to play for nothing by the American Federation of Musicians, recording and transcription fund (nice of Mr. Petrillo). Don't miss it--should be a good show.....

.....CONDOLENCES to one of our Top Photographers, ART McEWEN, whose mother died on Wednesday.....

.....A SIGHT TO SEE, MARKHAM JOHNSTON, back from a stay in Sacramento sporting a new CHAR- TREUSE car.....

Agreement with every man is not only an opiate to the mind, it will eventually defeat your purpose.

simply to make other people more interesting.

BIG TURKEY SHOOT NEAR MONTEREY SET FOR OCT. 7

Northern California's best known Turkey Shoot, which annually attracts top marksmen from all over the state, this year will be held Sunday, October 7, at Tarpey Flats, three miles east of Monterey on the Salinas Highway. Entrance is free.

In announcing Monterey Peninsula Post 41, American Legion's 17th Annual Turkey Shoot date, Post Commander
Ed Duffy and General Chairman Charles Houseman stated that several truckloads of prime turkeys have been provided. These will be given away on the big rifle and .22 ranges, as well as in various games.

TWO LIVE WIRES: Stephen
Andrew Thatcher, aged 4½ months, recent Carmel visitor, and his grandfather, Stephen Andrew Del
Monte, popular man-all-about-town.

Last year more than 5,000 participants attended the shoot which has become one of Northern California's most popular sports events. A committee of 50 Legionnaires handles the various features of the important event with dispatch. Shooting starts early and lasts as long as marksmen can see.

Refreshments and plenty of food, with entertainment for the entire family, will be provided. Funds raised are used for American Legion and community welfare service, Duffy and Houseman said.

Live birds are not used.
The big range for heavy calibre rifles features a silhouetted turkey at 235 yards in which a seven inch white plate is the bullseye. A slight chip of the plate is considered a hit.
No tracer bullets or telescope sight is permitted. The .22 rifle range is at 85 yards under the same conditions. Marksmen are encouraged to bring their own guns altho rifles will be available. In past years the trapshooting competition also has been popular.

SAMUEL SORIN, PIANIST

First artist of the Fall-Winter Season of the Monterey Peninsula Community Concert Association's schedule is Samuel Sorin, pianist, who will play at the Pacific Grove High School Auditorium next Friday, October 5, at 8:15 p.m.

His appearances with leading orchestras of the country have earned him an outstanding reputation and gained fine reviews from leading critics, the announcement pointed out.

Virgil Thomson, critic of the New York Herald Tribune recently wrote, "There was love in Mr. Sorin's performance, whether love of the piece (the Chopin Concerto in F minor), or of Chopin in general, or simply of playing the piano, I do not know or very much care. For some reason beyond his technical excellence, which is tops, I found his music completely interesting to listen to."

From his twelfth year, Samuel Sorin has been winning prizes with his mastery of the piano and music lovers of the Monterey Peninsula can look forward to his appearance here.

Membership cards are being processed for mailing now and any members who have changes of address to register should notify the Monterey Peninsula Community Concert Association at P.O. Box 300, Pacific Grove, immediately, in order to receive their cards without delay. There will be no single admissions sold for this or any concert presented this coming season.

In spite of today's inflated prices, your telephone remains one of the lowest-cost items in the family budget.

FRIENDLY HELPER TO FAMILY BUDGETS

Your telephone dollars go farther today than they did in 1940

1. The way prices have skyrocketed on most items you buy to run your home, you might expect your telephone rates would have gone along, too. For, just as your costs have soared on things your family needs, so have our costs of providing telephone service—wages, taxes and materials. Yet, despite this, the increases in telephone rates do not even cover our increased wage costs alone.

3. You have more telephone service—and better telephone service—today than ever. And the value you're getting for your telephone dollar is due, basically, to just one thing. Over the years your telephone system has had the financial strength to attract the investors' money needed to build equipment and develop telephone service to a highly efficient level. And with a financially strong system, the telephone can continue to grow in value and usefulness to you and all the nation.

2. You buy telephone service for just one thing—to have a quick way to keep in touch with other people. Today, in most places, you can call about twice as many telephones without a toll charge as in 1940. When you compare just that one great increase in value with the small increase in telephone rates, you can see you pay much less for service today—in terms of what the telephone can do for you.

Your telephone is one of today's best bargains

* The cost of telephone service today has actually dropped in terms of the number of telephones a customer can call without toll charges. For, since 1940, telephones have doubled in most places.

Pure Mountain Water

Monterey Peninsula water is true mountain water of the finest quality. The Carmel River, source of the Peninsula supply, begins in the wilderness and with its branches drains one of the most productive watersheds in the state.

This fruitful watershed lies within the Los Padres National Forest in the Santa Lucia Mountains and extends over an area of 126 square miles. Rainfall in the region varies from 10 to 40 inches a season with an annual average for the last 23 years of 20 3/4 inches, measured at San Clemente Dam.

To provide an adequate supply for the dry months of the year, millions of gallons of the water which falls on the watershed in the rainy season are held back by Los Padres and San Clemente Dams and stored in mountain reservoirs for future use. The abundant supply of good water available to the Monterey Peninsula every month in the year is one of the factors which have made this area a favored home place.

WHO IS IT?

This is one of a series of photographs of residents you should know. All "Who Is It?" personalities are well-known residents of the Monterey Peninsula. For this week's answer turn to page 10.

How Would You Like to Have the California Water & Telephone Co. Pay Your Water Bill?

You can do so by investing in their stock — at present about $30.00 a share and paying 50c in dividends every three months, a yield of approximately 6½%.

Divide your annual water bill by two to see how many shares are necessary to pay your yearly bill.

COSTUME BALL RAISES FUNDS FOR KIWANIS CHARITIES

Merriment and music of the Carmel Kiwanis annual Costume Ball filled the banquet hall of Mission Ranch last Saturday evening. Bill Aldous as House Committee Chairman was a gracious Mandarin Host while President Jack Martin and Mrs. Martin resembled an animated floor lamp and a Mexican dog fancier.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Elston were a Corsican Sea Captain and a Sun Valley Dream. The Art Hulls were resplendent Spaniards. Tall Mrs. Carey in black velvet Italian Ball Gown and feathered hat entered with little Mrs. Armor in Mexican fiesta dress with Red and Hal very comfortable in white pants and Aloha shirts.

The Judges, Messrs. Al Fry, La Playa Hotel; Jack Dougherty, Casa Munras; and Rollo Payne, Village Corner, awarded over $300 worth of prizes contributed by local merchants. The Grand Prize, a gold watch, was won by Mrs. Joseph Gledhill for best costume. As Lillian Russell, she wore a beautiful green Gay-Nineties dress with huge matching hat and parasol. She was squired by her husband as Diamond Jim Brady.

Most original was Dr. D. M. Petersen, splinted and bandaged as an Accident-Just-Happened and entitled "I Forgot My Flashlight!" Best Couple were Mr. and Mrs. John Dowdakin as Spanish Gypsies.

John Ruster wore an authentic Austrian Tyrol outfit. Ed Neroda, as a Korean Admiral, escorted Mrs. Neroda, a lovely Alice in Wonderland. Mrs. John Chitwood, a polka-dotted Sis Hopkins, was with the Commander in Egyptian dress. Doc and Mrs. Staniford were colorful Pirates. Mr. and Mrs. George Tomlinson's party in blackface seemed hugely entertained by the whole performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Harrah as Dickens characters had stepped right out of the last century. His stovepipe hat and huge nose appeared over your shoulder at most unexpected moments. Leslie Hannah as a Mammy singer, Mrs. Hannah, a lovely Bavarian.

Pat Coleman's Four furnished just the right dance music. Mr. Alton Walker's 1904 Buick was no small part of the advance publicity on the streets of Carmel. The Ball cleared about $500 for Kiwanis charities, notably the Kids' Halloween Party given free each year.

PAGANINI QUARTET IN CONCERT OCT. 2

The program of the world-famous Paganini String Quartet to be given next Tuesday, October 3, at Carmel's Sunset Auditorium, parallels in part their first concert here in 1947. As in their previous appearance, they are giving a Haydn and a Beethoven number, but this time they include modern selections by Ravel and Gerhart Muench, a resident of the Big Sur.

The concert starts with the vivacious Haydn Quartet in G Major, No. 1 of Op. 54--one of the 83 quartets by this genius. It is a joyous work from this "father of instrumental music."

The Muench selection being played consists of a movement from his String Quartet.

UNUSUAL PROGRAM AT THE HILL

Cocktails will be on the house at Hill Theater next week, during the three-day run of the French film "Jenny Lamour" starting Tuesday. This most famous of all French whodunits, which won the Grand Prize at Venice in 1947, stars the shapely and lively Suzy Delair, and Louis Jouvet, "France's greatest actor," who died last month.

Accompanying the film will be a 50-minute color tour of "France Today." During intermission patrons will be treated to Noilly-Cassis, the favorite drink at sidewalk cafes in Paris.

Starting tomorrow, the Hill is showing the highly-rated true account of the espionage activities of Mrs. Peter Churchill during the war.

ANSWER TO THIS WEEK'S

WHO IS IT?

Massachusetts born but California bred "Bill" La Porte of Pacific Grove somehow epitomizes the all-American man. Comingled in him are the sturdiness and resourcefulness of the New Englander with the enterprise, energy and freedom of the Westerner. He has much respect for the cultures both of the East and the West, but prefers the latter as being "open-armed with opportunity," whereas the former is "like an old man who's lived his life."

Mr. La Porte's father had been in business in Lowell, Massachusetts, when, in 1920, because of health, he moved his family to California. "Bill" attended the University of California; then for a year and a half worked with the Standard Oil Co. in the San Joaquin Valley. Punching a time-clock and working for a salary had no appeal for this ambitious young man, however, and he decided to sink or swim on his own. Returning to the Monterey Peninsula, he founded, in 1924, the La Porte-Greenwald Company in Monterey, which is still active.

One of the fortunate few whose choice of a life work has proved thoroughly satisfying, he says, "Every auction sale is a thrill...no two are ever alike. Buyers and sellers offer an endless variety of personality, ranging from people in the most humble walks of life to titled nobility. We have sold everything--from narcotics to priceless paintings." On one occasion La Porte had charge of selling an estate, and among other things disposed of was an ivory chess set. After the buyer had taken his new possessions home he set up the chessmen one sunny afternoon on a table in his patio. As the game started one of the chessmen came apart. Inside was a sticky substance which the new owner was curious enough about to have chemically analyzed...It proved to be blue gum opium. Another interesting, if disheartening, sale was that of an original Remington painting which Mr. La Porte sold for $12.50. A few weeks later the picture was turned over for $2,100.

Bill La Porte's successful business career, demanding as it is, has not utilized all of his energies. For ten years he was in the City Administration of Pacific Grove, serving four years as mayor. At present he is on the board of directors of the History and Art Association; is a member of PG Rotary; has been quite active in Masonic circles--was one-time Master of the PG Lodge and Patron of Eastern Star.

Obviously his life doesn't hold a superfluity of slack hours for recreation--he no longer takes time out for golf or fishing or bridge--but he does have two great hobbies, one, an acre wide flower garden, the other, Sheryl Ann, two years old, only daughter of his only daughter, apparently a very entrancing small bit of humanity judging from her grandfather's enthusiasm.

Of course this native of Massachusetts votes the Republican ticket. He disclaims, however, that his party preference has anything to do with family or sectional loyalties. He is a Republican by choice and logical reasoning and believes that the great majority of outstanding minds in this country are to be found within Republican ranks. "It is true that the masses used to be exploited by 'capital' but now the contrary is true...it's unfortunate that the party is not in a position to take the reins in its hands." Business, he feels, has been on the upgrade on the Peninsula for the last four or five months and he predicts that it will continue uphill so long as inflation in this country continues and the present world situation prevails. Beyond that point Mr. La Porte has the intelligence not to prognosticate. If he ventured a long-range prognosis he admits it would not be an optimistic one.

MUENCH TO COMPOSE 'TAMING OF SHREW' MUSIC

Actors' Theatre has been fortunate enough to enlist the musical talent of the Peninsula's own Gerhart Muench for its production of "Taming of the Shrew" which is scheduled for late October, it was announced this week.

Mr. Muench, when the play was outlined to him and needs designated for various themes and incidental music, showed boundless enthusiasm in the interpretation of this play and will start creating scores almost immediately, according to the announcement.

One rather fascinating aspect of this news to the theatre and concert goers will be that Gerhart Muench will record the finished music himself, using the harpsichord to interpret the Elizabethan style Pavane, Wedding March, March of the Players, Parade of the Wedding Guests, Galop, a dulcet melody like unto "20 nightingales do sing," a theme for Petruchio's entrances and exits, and incidental music for the choreographical set changes and background.

at a Rotary lunch this week was GUNNAR NORBERG. He used as his theme a well known book entitled "SWEDEN, A PATTERN FOR THE WORLD." Gunnar, who is as of Swedish stock as anyone might suspect from his name, and who lived in Sweden from the age of 9 to 12, turned the tables on that title and delivered a POWERFUL talk on "THE U.S.A., A PATTERN FOR THE WORLD." We could all use more of that kind of THINKING. RURAL ROUTE 2 GRANTED; CARRIER SOUGHT

The Carmel Post Office will enlarge its service area, beginning October 16, with the establishment of an additional Rural Route. It will be known as Route 2 and will include parts of the present Route 1, covering Carmel Point, the Mission Tract, Hatton Fields Mesa, and then up Carmel Valley Road to the Rancho Fiesta.

The latter part of the route has heretofore been served from Monterey. By adding this stretch to the Carmel service, Monterey will be able to get its rural carrier to the Post Office at Robles Del Rio hours sooner and thereby speed up the mail delivery service to Upper Valley residents.

Route 1 will continue to include Walker Tract, Ladera Drive, the Highlands, then will take in new territory serving Carmel Hills, the Jacks Peak area, and back to the northern outskirts of Carmel.

Acting Postmaster Mollner is looking for a Carrier for the new Route 2, which is about 28 miles in length. Mr. Mollner can make a temporary appointment for this position, which pays $2,482 per year plus 8 cents a mile for expenses - - the carrier to furnish his own transportation. Those interested should apply immediately to Mr. Mollner at the Post Office, Carmel.
